FEBRILE CONVULSION in Children

(STHK0465 Paediatric Clinical Guideline for the management of febrile convulsions due for review 15.02.2026)

Algorithm 1 - First Seizure and Fever

SIMPLE SEIZURE WITH FEVER, NO SERIOUS OR COMPLEX FEATURES Yes Do you still have concerns this SEEK SENIOR may be meningitis? OPINION URGENTLY No Ensure urine sample obtained (clean catch or No is there a focus for infection catheter/SPA) for on examination? dipstick (MC&8 If positive or clinical concern) Yes Investigate and treat focus Give parents/carers febrile convulsion information leaflet and have a full discussion concerning management of seizure and likelihood of recurrence DISCHARGE ADMIT Parents reassured and happy Advise regular No to take child home? antipyretics and 24 Yes hours open access

Algorithm 2 - Simple seizure with fever, >18 months and no serious or complex features